Legal Lite

Legal counsel for your business, as you need it

Introducing Legal Lite—a simple, convenient way to get expert commercial legal advice. Every business needs professional legal counsel at various stages in its growth and, more often than not, as quickly as possible. Through advising small, medium and large businesses for over 20 years, Harty Rushmere Attorneys has witnessed the value of building long-term relationships with our clients. As your business evolves, so does our legal counsel.

Quick, effortless legal advice

Imagine you are going through a contract or are preparing a letter or e-mail and are faced with a problematic clause or issue or you're concerned that you may create a legal problem if you say or neglect to say something. There is no time to make an appointment with a legal advisor, as the deal needs to be finalised by close of business. With Legal Lite, you can now access the Harty Rushmere team as a sounding board via telephone, e-mail or even instant messaging channels such as iMessage, Skype or WhatsApp. Any available resource on our team will respond promptly during our usual business hours (which, as you already know, are anything but usual!) and provide critical insight, helping you make an informed decision before committing to agreements or deals or sending out formal communications. There is no need to enter into complex instructions or consultations, although these can be arranged as a follow-up if required. It's the same as having an in-house legal advisor, but at the fraction of the cost. (If we determine that the particular matter or issue cannot be dealt with as anticipated and requires a more in-depth investigation, we will advise you accordingly.)

How you benefit

Whether you are a medium-to-small business or a large corporate, you will benefit from our personal, reliable approach to legal counsel. Our services will be available to all levels within your organisation, from sales and marketing to finance and legal. We will be on call to discuss any legal matter that requires urgent attention and that fits the profile of Legal Lite (for example, it does not include complex or formal agreement reviews or any work that the firm usually outsources, such as litigation, labour or trademarks).

Costs

We have prepared a few packages that we believe should cater for most requirements:

- R2,800.00 per month (excluding VAT and disbursements): up to 3 hours per month of the above services
- R4,500.00 per month (excluding VAT and disbursements): up to 5 hours per month of the above services
- R6,800.00 per month (excluding VAT and disbursements): up to 8 hours per month of the above services

Each package is subject to a three-month commitment, but can be upgraded or downgraded on a month's notice. Hours used in a month do not carry over, and our other retainer or project-based options are still available.

About Harty Rushmere

Harty Rushmere provides specialist IT and commercial legal services rooted in over twenty years of relevant experience. Global corporates, growing businesses, start-ups and our industry peers trust us to provide considered legal counsel that is forward-thinking, practical and mindful of how the law has evolved, both locally and internationally. Our strategic mindset ensures that our clients view us not only as lawyers, but as trusted business advisors and a pragmatic sounding board.

Our small, independent firm has acted for a diverse, global client base since its inception in 1994. This longevity is a result of genuine long-term relationships with our clients, some of which have been with us from the start. Our clients trust us to provide extensive IT and commercial legal services either on a transactional basis, or as a regular outsourced legal service to provide or supplement an internal function through our Legal Lite offering.
