

Executive Summary

In this eFile we announce a new partner at Harty Rushmere Attorneys. You can also find out more on our Web site about our innovative Legal Lite solution and how we can help fast-track your commercial transactions by providing timely, on-demand advice.

A new partner at Harty Rushmere

We are incredibly excited to announce that Rizanné Du Preez has been made partner at Harty Rushmere, effective 1 November 2020.

Over the past eight years, we've had the pleasure of working alongside Rizanné and bearing witness to her growth into an exceptionally astute commercial attorney. We're lucky to have been given the opportunity to welcome such talent as a partner into our firm.

After completing a four-year LLB in just three years and attaining the North-West University (NWU) law faculty award for top final year dissertation, Rizanné's legal career started at a litigation firm in Pretoria, where she developed a keen interest in commercial law. Soon after, she joined Harty Rushmere in 2012. Her commercial insight and natural problem-solving ability put her in the perfect position to thrive, and she quickly gained valuable experience with local and international clients of all sizes, from startups to established enterprises.

Since joining Harty Rushmere, Rizanné has been involved in the entire spectrum of commercial transactions. She has gained a wealth of experience in drafting and negotiating company set up and restructure agreements, large commercial leases and a host of IT-related agreements in the fields of reselling, licensing, distribution and cloud-based arrangements. Rizanné excels at every challenge she faces, delivering extraordinary results time and time again.

Clients that work with Rizanné experience an attorney who truly cares about their business and takes the necessary time to learn the ins and outs of how they operate. It is this approach, combined with her approachable demeanor and commitment to quality, that has made Rizanné such a fantastic addition to our firm. It was clear from the start that we had discovered a gem.

Happy Holidays from Harty Rushmere

After a challenging year that's been anything but ordinary, it's finally time to take a well-deserved break with the people who are special to us. Celebrations this year may be a bit different for a number of us, but we hope this holiday season will still be full of festivity and happiness.

We'd like to take this opportunity to thank all our clients, friends and colleagues for your support over the past year, and we're looking forward to a better 2021 together!

For further information and assistance, get in touch with us admin@harty.law.

The eFiles is a periodic newsletter which is distributed free of charge to anyone who wishes to receive articles on legal issues relating to our fields of practice. Please e-mail any comments or suggestions to neil@harty.law.

To subscribe, e-mail efiles@harty.law with "Subscribe" as the subject. To unsubscribe, send an e-mail with "Unsubscribe" as the subject.

This newsletter is for educational purposes only and must not be considered as legal advice. Your individual situation may not fit the generalisations discussed. Only your attorney can evaluate and advise you on your individual situation. Except as provided below, you may feel free to forward, distribute and copy this eFile as long as you distribute and copy it without any changes and you include all headers and other identifying information. You may not, however, copy it to a Web site without our prior written consent.

If you would like information about obtaining legal services from Harty Rushmere, you can contact Neil Harty at +27(0)11 884-0792 or visit our Web site at www.harty.law. If you would like an attorney from Harty Rushmere to give a presentation on this topic, please call for information.